

THRESHING & EDWARDIAN FAIR

This new venture for the Group comes next month. Saturday September 17th. All day. There will be more details in the September Magazine, but the message is this "Don't come as you are, come as you were", - or as you might have been if you weren't born yet. Rake out those old Teddy Boy outfits. There are some other suggestions around this page. Numerous stallholders all over the Group are manufacturing their wares, there will be food to eat, free car parking, and a wide variety of elderly farm machinery showing off its paces in a display of all the stages of producing a harvest from ploughing to the milling of corn.

Castell Farm, Raveningham, the side of all this activity, is on the road from Thurilton to Beccles, (the B1140). The Fair will be in a big field on the left as you go South, on the bend just opposite Castell Farm itself.
